Print 16" tall x 16" wide

"The petroglyph known as the Rainbow Man can be found in the lava fields on the Big Island of Hawaii. The Rainbow Man is a powerful symbol for the "Keeper of the Aina" (nature and the people). The rainbow is thought to signify that he is a man of honor and importance - a symbol of spiritual power or mana.

The wooden sconce included with this piece attaches to the wall and the piece has the illusion that the canvas is balancing on its corner. Very simple, yet very dramatic."

Appears to be balancing on wall sconce
