Warm golden light filters through the bamboo leaves as the fresh smells of the forest refresh and sooth you.

Serenity can be found in the simple things in life. Like taking in a beautiful sunset or while walking among the living and breathing bamboo forest. Bamboo has an elegant shape and its appeal is timeless.

Can you hear the bamboo leaves rustling in the gentle breeze, inviting you to stay a little while longer in your serene bamboo refuge?

My bamboo paintings are painted from my mind's eye...based on snapshots taken in my mind of bamboo that I have felt and touched. Painting this way provides me with a sense of peace and freedom to set aside detailed realism and let the painting come to life on it's own.

This piece features a bamboo framework made from a thick walled species of Vietnamese bamboo. Many people have never seen very thick walled bamboo like this. Using this Vietnamese bamboo makes constructing frameworks much easier because of its strength and ability to hold a nail and screw while being resistant to splitting. This allows me to be more creative with the use of actual bamboo.

This painting is signed and dated on the front and titled, signed and dated on the back of the canvas as well. A Certificate of Authenticity also accompanies this painting and provides further documentation for your artwork.
